

258 N. Vernon Ave.,
Pasadena,
California
Dec. 31, 1941.

Dear Sister

I will write you a few lines to let you know we are in the land of the living yet. This is a beautiful place with oranges & lemons growing all around in the yards & roses & lily bushes all in blossom when every thing is all froze in Ills. This is the rainy season but we dont have so very much rain yet when it rains it is just like Illinois Spring weather we are 35 miles from the ocean so we have not seen it yet for it takes money to move around. There is lots of churches here & lots of good people they seem to be awful kind to strangers & poor folks. I feel quite well here only I have a little cold but it dont make me feel bad at all Nettie is well

2
Abbie dont feel so well now with the damp weather but hope she will improve when it gets dry again in the spring. we have some nice meetings to go to two afternoons in the week teaching the bible & explaining prophecy it is awful interesting & I wished to know more of the bible. I send you these few tracts they were given to us I said to pass them along so we thought we would send them out in letters Abbie says to tell you she is wondering how little William in Chicago is she often speaks about him. hope Mrs. Herminson is with you yet & hope you are keeping well I will close for this time with love to all from your loving Sister Ann M. Bachman